An Introduction to Salihah Central led by

Director Amina Sayeed

Balancing our Load:

Time Management when Implementing the Deen in our Daily Lives for Women of all Ages based on Sunnah

The director, Amina Sayeed, is a professionally trained educator with experience in teaching and school management. In addition to her work in education, Mrs. Sayeed has also spent extensive time studying Islam under qualified scholars across the world in particular Syria and Pakistan. Currently, she spends much of her time teaching these subjects, as well as other subjects, to women of all ages across the Chicagoland area.
